As provided by section 6321, 6322, and 6323 of the Internal Revenue Code, our records indicate that the IRS has given you notice that taxes (including interest and penalties) have been assessed against the following-named taxpayer as listed above. The IRS has made a demand for payment of this liability, but it remains unpaid. Therefore, there is a lien in favor of the United States on all rights to property belonging to this taxpayer for the amount of these taxes, and additional penalties, interest, and costs that may accrue. This information has been recorded with your county and is now available as a public record.

At this point, it is in your best interest to contact the Tax Lien Unit indicated on this notice for verification purposes. If you believe that this is an error or that you do not owe the tax lien recorded, please call 866-362-5842 to have this information verified. If your taxes have been paid, you can disregard this notice.

For additional questions or concerns please call 866-362-5842 and use file number [REDACTED]
